

Alibi of Henry Stevens Attacked by State's Witness at Trial

WAS KLAN INVOLVED? Finding of Ku Klux Klan cross on lawn of Somerset County Court House has revived rumors the secret order was involved in Hall-Mills murders. Photo shows detectives examining mysterious cross. (Photo Graphic.)

SECRET

engagement of Sybil Bauer, world's champion back-stroke mermaid, and student of Northwestern University, to Ed Sullivan, GRAPHIC sports editor, leaked out when Gertrude Ederle jokingly asked her about date of wedding. "June," was Sybil's reply. Ed blushing admits it's so.

"WOOF! WOOF!"

A cat may look at a king, so why shouldn't a dog take a peek at the murder trial of the century? Photo shows canine seeing what it's all about through court window. (Photo Graphic.)

DAMAGING TESTIMONY. Defense in the Hall-Mills case struck a snag when Mrs. Mary Demarest, cousin of Minna Clarke, attacked alibi of Henry Stevens. Photo above, taken during her testimony, shows (1) Willie Stevens, (2) Mrs. Hall, (3) Harry Stevens, (4) Justice Parker, (5) Mrs. Demarest. (Photo Graphic.)

IMPORTANT WITNESS. Brought from California to testify in Hall-Mills trial, Trooper Henry L. Dickman (left) shown in custody of Sergt. Manion of Governors Island, was photographed leaving court house after yesterday's session. His turn on stand hasn't come yet. (Photo Graphic.)